- one advertisement in a text box with a visible border
- articles are to have centered and bold titles
- at least two font styles
- regular text is to be 12pt
- titles are to be 16pt
- at least two but no more than four different and relevant clip-art images that are text wrapped
- effective design - no large white spaces
- Word Art title, centered with your name and date in the title banner
- a closing message in its own text box

Coming Events

Leo Hayes High presents Brigadoon at The Playhouse from Feb. 4 - 7. Brigadoon is a tale about two Americans who stumble on the enchanted village of Brigadoon. The hero, Tommy, falls in love with beautiful Fiona, then learns that the village materializes from the mists of time every 100 years for a single day. The shows start at 8 p.m. Tickets cost $16.50. For more information contact The Playhouse at 458-8344 or via e-mail at boxoffice@theplayhouse.ca.

Winterfest

Aliant Winterfest NB® is organized and managed by Winterfest New Brunswick. Aliant Inc is the festival's presenting sponsor for 2004's event. Winterfest NB® will provide New Brunswick's capital region and visitors with fun-filled and safe outdoor winter activities.

Aliant Winterfest NB is looking for volunteers to assist the festival in supervising its many winter activities such as the gigantic ice slides, maze and more. Call 1472-4386 or visit: <http://www.winterfest.nb.ca>

Scholarship Announced

A one-million dollar scholarship donated to Leo Hayes High school by an anonymous source was announced this week. The scholarship is to be awarded annually to the student who listens to every morning announcement, doesn't litter anywhere inside or outside the school, who stands perfectly still and quiet during the national anthem, and who achieves 100% in every subject for all four years in school. Good luck to all students!

Next edition to be published Friday, January 1st, 2004. Submissions are to be forwarded to the editor three days before publication date to be considered. See you next month.
Stay loose Lions!!

Design a one page Newsletter containing a banner at the top and bottom of the page.

Information between the banners is to be placed in two columns. DO NOT use textboxes for the news articles, set the page for 2 columns.

Directions: READ the first article of the sample Newsletter above for specifics.

1. Create a new Microsoft Word document and save the document as: Newsletter in your documents folder on the server.
2. Begin by creating the top banner. Use a text box and select an appropriate border style. The banner must include:
 - Name of the Newsletter - The Lion's Roar (WordArt of your choice, 60pt, Bold, Font of your choice, centered)
 - Today's date - Day of the Week, Month, Day, Year (i.e. Tuesday, September 15) (18pt, Font of your choice, centered)
 - Your Name, Editor (12pt, same font as date, centered)
3. Next create the bottom banner. Use a text-box and use the default border. Enter and center the following text:

Next edition to be published Month Day, Year*. Submissions are to be forwarded to the editor three days before publication date to be considered. See you next month.
Stay loose Lions!!

- Month Day, Year is to be one month from today's date in upper banner.
 - Change the text size to 10pt.
 - Bold "Stay loose Lions!!"
4. Create two columns for the page. Create your own articles to fill the columns and they may be real or fictional. The column requirements are as follows:
 - fully justified
 - minimum of three articles
 - one advertisement in its own text-box located at the bottom of the second column
 - all articles are to have a title that is centered, bold and 16pt
 - titles are to be sans-serif font
 - regular text is to be a 12pt font of your choice
 - a minimum of two but no more than four clip-art that allow text-wrap
